

Navigating a New Route: Emerging Issues in Transportation Technology

Summary & Closing Remarks Ed Siciliano – VP, Sales & Marketing

April 23-24, 2007 - Princeton, New Jersey

Our sincere thanks...

- To our clients and business associates.
- To our valued partners.
- To the media and publications for covering this event.
- To the Summit Event team:
Lori Xander Appelget - Manager, Marketing
Craig Fiander - Senior Director, Marketing

Our simple goals...

- Agenda was relevant, interesting.
- That you take something back to your respective businesses which is useful and actionable.
- That we treated you well, your stay was comfortable and enjoyable.
- That our Summit evolves into a must-attend transportation industry event.

Survey...

- IMPORTANT!
- Web-based, post event
- Gift Certificate incentives!
- Our Promise: Your feedback WILL influence the 2008 agenda... and it WILL be shared with speakers.

A Perplexing array of elements go into this simple concept...

Why do we host a Summit?

- It's a complex business, we don't assume we understand all elements.
- We all must look outside our organizations.
- Technology solution providers MUST listen to customers (and work together).
- A forum for an exchange of new ideas, a place to test concepts.
- We feel uniquely qualified to host this industry event because it all starts with getting from A to B!

Navigating a New Route: Emerging Issues in Transportation Technology

Thanks for your participation!

April 23-24, 2007 - Princeton, New Jersey
